Ann was the best friend of my sister Cheryl Zub and over the 13 years we knew Ann she became like a sister to me. We spent all of the holidays together "our little family of three". We shared all of our life's ups and downs. My sister Cheryl has been in a long-term care facility for the last year and Ann would go and see her every Saturday. Before when Cheryl had her own apartment, Ann would spend three days of the week with her. Ann was such a wonderful loving, caring and giving woman. I'm thankful she was a part of my life and world. If anyone would like to reach out I can be reached at: debyshackelford@gmail.com. Ann and your family are in my prayers.
