John Lowell Johnston Jr.

JUN 5, 1959 - DEC 29, 2022

John Johnston Jr., age 63, of Bellbrook, passed away on Thursday, December 29th, 2022. He was born on June 5th, 1959 to John Johnston Sr. and Sandra Kelly (Cortright).

John spent many years honorably serving his country in the US Air Force. He served 28 years combined between active duty and reserves and worked in civil service for 32 years before retiring. While he was proud of the work he did, his true passion was living life to the fullest. As a true child at heart, he was the ultimate "Poppy," always cherishing time spent with his grandkids. He enjoyed traveling with his wife, Robin, especially to Las Vegas, playing golf, bowling, and everything Ohio State Football. He was a happy, friendly, all-around nice guy, and his compassion and optimism will be missed by many.

He was preceded in death by his father John Johnston Sr. and brother Don Johnston.

John is survived by his wife Robin Johnston, children Adam Johnston, Matthew Johnston, Nathan Johnston, and Jeannette Dennis, grandchildren Tucker Dennis, Harper Dennis, Cooper Dennis, Xander Dennis, Amelia Johnston, Myles Johnston, and Aria Johnston, mother Sandra Kelly, and brother Brian Johnston.

To help the family celebrate his life, please join them at the American Legion Post 598 (5700 Kentshire Dr.

Kettering, OH 45440-4248) on Sunday, January 8th, 2022 at 2:30 pm for military honors and a life celebration service. There is no visitation prior to the service, which will begin promptly at 2:30 pm. I knew John in high school. We played a lot of "sandlot" football together. John always had a big smile or something funny to say. He was a good guy and he will be missed. God must have a special purpose for John because he was taken much too soon. Much love to robin, his children and grandkids.

J was an optimist. He was always always looking at the bright side of every situation. When we would look at the worst case scenario he always countered with the best case scenario. "Live your life to the fullest, enjoy every moment" was his motto and he truly lived it. He was my sisters rock, her protector and really her friend. Robin and J did so many wonderful, memory making things together. Living life. J's family was everything to him. I loved J like a brother and someone who would always tell it straight. His big bear hugs and joyfulness soothed us all. God Bless J and I know we will all be together in eternal heaven one day. Give "girly" a big hug and hang with Linda and Art and all those loved ones that have gone before us. I will miss you. Penny & Michael

I was fortunate to have worked with \u201cJJ\u201d in the Fighter/Bomber Wing and he was a man who enjoyed life. He was devoted to his Better Half - Robin and the both complemented each others zest for living and enjoying their ever growing families. Rest in peace buddy and keep a watch out for Robin - family & friends.
