Norm Hansen

AUG 13, 1934 - DEC 13, 2021

A gentle soul who never raised his voice, unless it was to sing to Jesus with sweet tenor melodies, Carl Norman "Norm" Hansen Jr., age 87, passed away on Monday, December 13th, 2021 in Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Norm was born on August 13th, 1934 to Carl Norman Hansen Sr. and Ethel (Reade) Hansen. Norm had a lifelong passion for music. At age 10, he began singing in the Dayton Rotary Boys Choir, and continued to sing throughout his life. With his beautiful voice, he sang solos at First Baptist Church in downtown Dayton for many years. After that, he started attending Fairhaven Church in Centerville and he sang there, in duets and in a trio, for 40 years. His love for music extended beyond just tenor tones, he also played the guitar and the ukulele.

In 1975, Norm accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at a Bill Gothard Seminar and continued to follow Christ throughout his life. Norm worked for NCR for many years. He started out selling Microfiche Readers, and stayed with the company as the technology changed, before eventually retiring from the company. After retiring, he became a CPA in financial planning for a few years.

He loved to play golf, especially when he could play in the mountainous terrain in Fairfield Glade, Tennessee with some of his close friends. He enjoyed playing golf, in Dayton, with his close friend and brother-in-law, Joe Morris. He was also proud of the fact that he had achieved a hole in one! He loved movies, as they often made him think back to fond memories he had of going to the movies with his Grandpa, a Norwegian Immigrant, as a boy. His favorite movie was an old western, "The Big Country." He spent a great deal of time with his English-immigrant grandparents as well, and carried on the same close connection with his own granddaughters, who he adored. They too spent many precious, cherished hours together.

Norm was incredibly patient, kind, and loving. He was always willing to show affection to the people he loved, a legacy he would want those receivers of his affection to carry on each and every day, as they think of him. He will be missed by his wife, Shirley Ann (Six) Hansen, daughter

Norm was a pleasure to be around. He was always kind to everyone. The last time I saw him was probably four years ago when to my surprise, he came to entertain the residents at a nursing home where I was working. He sang and played his ukulele. I believe it was with someone from Fairhaven Church. The residents loved it. I miss the Hansen family reunions we used to have at Great Aunt Olga's. Sadly, we have lost so many family members including Janet, Nettie and now Norm this year. My condolences to Shirley and family from the Archer/Walker family, Linda, Donna, Sherry and Michael.

We just saw this notice. May God comfort you in your grief. We thank God for Norm's faithful testimony over the years, usually through his beautiful and clear tenor singing voice. He blessed many and he blessed us with his singing in our wedding in 1985. Our prayers are with you. Dave and Ginny Stacy, Kettering OH
