Carl Ross

APR 20, 1937 - MAY 20, 2021

Ross, Carl L, age 84, of Bellbrook, passed away Thursday, May 20th, 2021 at Hospice of Dayton.

He was born April 20th, 1937 in Dayton to Martha (Sherretts) and Clarence Ross. He was preceded in death by his parents and siblings, his wife Constance "Connie" Ross, and their daughter, Duronda Miller.

Carl is survived by his sons Zachary Ross, Stewart (Michelle) Ross, and Gregory (Tammy) Ross, as well as eight grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Carl loved being outside. He enjoyed canoeing, motorcycling, and camping. Carl was a history buff, particularly WWII and the Wild West. He was also very politically passionate and supported causes and organizations for many years that paralleled his beliefs. Carl was extremely mechanically inclined and could fix anything. One of his favorite hobbies was building model airplanes and cars. His friends and family will always remember how thoughtful he was with gift-giving.

The family will be celebrating his life privately, and ask that in lieu of flowers donations be made to Hospice of Dayton, 324 Wilmington Ave, Dayton, Ohio 45420. First let me begin by saying how sorry I am for you loss, Zach, Greg, and Stewart and families. Thank you Uncle Carl for the many memories that I will cherish forever. The holidays that you opened your home to us. Our trips down the street to Lawsons for chipped chopped ham, colby cheese, moon pies, and rc colas, the moron burgers that were bigger than dinner plates. The night when you woke us up to drive us around and see the fires that were set by someone including the covered bridge in Sugarcreek. I could go on and on with many more. Who am I going to call on ground hog day? Thank you Uncle Carl I will keep you in my heart forever!! Terri
