63 year's of friendship. Boy, where to start. We met Elaine in fifth grade at Longfellow school on Salem Ave. There were six of us that became best buddies. Elaine, Myself and Shirley Hunter and Judy Woods, Doris Lanier, Shirley Swartzal. We thought we were greatest in the area. (We were) 😊. My best memories are from year's later. Elaine, Shirley and I flew to San Francisco to see Aunt Peral. Then we drove across the Mojha desert to Sin City. Las Vegas was a blast. We had a fantastic time. We also went to Gatlinburg a few times. We were like the three musketeers. We will miss our buddy, but we will always have our memories. Goodbye Elaine, we will see you in Heaven 😊😊😊. Love, Carol Byrd and Shirley Hunter

Such a great lady that I regret not knowing better. Go in peace to paradise Elaine and thank you for giving so much of yourself to your family. They are all wonderful people you can be proud of.
