Dottie D Hubbell

SEP 23, 1946 - OCT 2, 2017

Hubbell, Dottie D. 71, of Xenia, passed away Monday, October 2nd, 2017 in at Greene Memorial Hospital.

She was born September 23rd, 1946 in Dayton to Dorothy (Ferguson) and Walter Ross. She was preceded in death by her her parents; son Kenneth Hubbell; four brothers, Marvin, Mitchell, Michael, and David; and one sister, Cheryl Hubbell.

Dottie is survived by her husband of 53 years, Kenneth; one daughter, Kimberly Brown (Brian); four grandchildren, Jason, Beth, Brian, and Josh; five great-grandchildren, Zoey, Chandler, Bentley, Brennan, and Shayla; two sisters, Sandra Johnson (Richard), and Dawn Snyder (Kevin); numerous other relatives and friends; and special friend, Gaynelle.

Dottie was affectionately called the "flower lady" because every May, during the Memorial Day season, she sold home-made silk flowers from her front yard. Dottie loved watching professional wrestling especially John Cena. She loved playing BINGO, buying daily lottery scratch-offs, and going shopping. Most of all, she loved her family, grandbabies, people and friends.

You are invited to life celebration services beginning with the visitation on Friday October 6th from 11:00am-12:00 pm at Conner & Koch Life Celebration Home, 92 W. Franklin St., Bellbrook, with services immediately following at noon. Burial in Spring Valley Cemetery.

You are welcome to send a condolence or flowers, light a candle and share a story or picture about Dottie at www.ConnerAndKoch.com by clicking on her name.
