I knew Granny for a very short year. She confided in me her love for her family, friends and in her Lord. She had an open heart and an open mind about my people the Cherokee. She was always interested in what they did to make it through this world and was amazed on how free they are in their prison. Granny never judged for what I am or the hard choices she knew I would have to make in the near future, but always told me to be true to what I felt in my heart. I had a dear love for her that no one will ever understand for she became a wise part of my life...Granny I know that you are still giving me the strength of your wisdom along with my Grams and I will be grateful always for what you share with her. Kiss Charlie for me and we will talk again soon. Waki' duhaywanay.....love Ruthie
