Dennis "The Duke" Kilmer Jankowski

SEP 22, 1938 - SEP 21, 2024

Dennis "The Duke" Kilmer JANKOWSKI, an original spirit whose love of family, animals, motorcycles, and constant adventurous winds departed for life's final road trip.

Denny will be remembered for his witty take on life, never too serious, but never without an original take, always ending in a wonderful non-judgmental smile, as to say, so that's my opinion on the topic, and so how about you?

The middle child of three children of Albert Jankowski Sr. and Lucille Jankowski (Kilmer), he is survived by his brother, Joseph Jankowski, and nephews and nieces he surely had a positive impact on: Garry, Greg, Julie (d.2012), Eric, children of Ivan and Irene Jankowski, Kim and Jeffrey children of Joseph and Carol Jankowski.

The middle brother of three, Denny "The Duke" was an extraordinary young athlete, dedicated son, and Army veteran with an original life whose adventures in a natural yet simple lifestyle are a reminder to...Be sure to stop and smell the flowers, love all creatures, be kind to others, and be responsible for your "body temple."

Duke, you will be missed more than you will ever know. Through every rep of life, with every glance into the sun piercing through the trees, highlighting its beauty, reminding us the passing light is a cherished moment to remember.

Thank You, Uncle Denny, for being you.

With much love and respect,

The JANKOWSKI Family
