Cynthia Margaret Buob

DEC 23, 1954 - DEC 30, 2025

BUOB, Cynthia M., age 71, of Dayton, passed away peacefully on December 30, 2025, at Hospice of Dayton.

Cynthia was a lifelong resident of the Dayton area and a 1973 graduate of Fairborn High School. She dedicated nearly 50 years of her life to Kettering Health Network, where she worked faithfully in various clerical support positions, retiring as a surgery scheduler at Cassano Health Clinic. Her career was marked by commitment and reliability. Cynthia was a member of St. Leonard's Church, where she was very recently confirmed, an important and meaningful milestone in her faith journey.

In her early years, Cynthia enjoyed classical music and was an avid reader, particularly favoring thrillers and biographies by authors such as Tom Clancy and John Grisham. She loved flower gardening and took great pleasure in caring for her plants. Astronomy was also an interest, and she was alert to celestial events. Cynthia had a taste for good food and chocolate and appreciated life's simple comforts. Family traditions meant a great deal to Cynthia. She especially loved Christmas and cherished time spent together with family, knowing how widely spread her loved ones were. She enjoyed trips to visit family in Hawaii, California, and Nevada over the years. Thanksgiving held special meaning for her, particularly her mother's cherished stuffing recipe, a tradition Cynthia proudly learned, preserved, and continued in her mother's honor.

Cynthia was known for being generous and quiet. She was especially proud of her independence, taking great satisfaction in purchasing her own home and living life on her own terms. Among many things, Cynthia will be remembered for her quiet strength, generosity of spirit, independence, and devotion to family traditions.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Milford Edward Buob and Nellie Mae Buob (née Evans), and her nephew, Zach Buob. Cynthia is survived by her brothers, John (Marie) Buob and Gary (Kathy) Buob; her sisters, Sharyn (Jim) Boyce and Elaine (Robert) Middlestetter; her nephews, Sean Buob, David (Candace) Buob, and James Boyce; her nieces, Jennifer (Bradley)

I worked with Cynthia at Grandview Hospital. She was a respected USC /HUC and always strived to be her best. I appreciated her willingness to share her knowledge with me and others. Our work lives continued to cross paths even after she transferred to Corwin Nixon Center. I am blessed to have known her. Rest in peace Cynthia.

This is one memory we have, a photo of Cynthia with our son, her nephew Zach Buob. We were attending a family reunion in Ohio. Zach was home from his Navy deployment and was able to join us.

My fondest memory of my dear sister-in-law, Cynthia, is when I moved into the Buob home after marrying her older brother, Gary. I came from California and Gary was in the Navy on deployment right after we married. It had been my first time away from my family in California. Cynthia was a bit younger than me and I never had a younger sister. She was very welcoming to me as a new member of their family. At the time we met, she was at Wright-Patterson University. She would include me in some of her university parties. She made me feel welcomed in a home I was new to and far away from anyone I knew. I will always remember her kindness, helpfulness and showing me around my new home and town. Blessings to Cynthia as she will be missed but never forgotten.

During my high school years, I briefly dated Cynthia, and have always had fond memories of that time. One memory was a date we went on in my 1964 Pontiac LeMans (probably around 1971) to a drive-in theater. She told me that she could stay out late, so we stayed out until 1am. However, her parents had not agreed, and called my father to find out where we were...he had no idea. Well, when I took her home around 1am, it was not good. I don't think we ever went out again, but it appears she had a great life, and has many family and friends to celebrate her wonderful life. With fond memories, Tim Hart Loudon, TN
